

To Reach. To Disciple. To Care.

The Home With The Yellow Door

Many of us want our homes to be a place where our neighbors can feel loved and cared for. A place where people can come for help and hear that Jesus loves them. But how do we put our desire into action? Rachel Frugé, Minister to Family Life at The Vine, has turned her home, the one with the yellow door, into a gathering place for her community.

The Center of Hope: Christ's Love in Action

Opening their doors in 1985, the Center of Hope began as a food pantry trying to keep up with the physical and spiritual needs of low-income families in Polk County. As a result of prayer and a survey emphasizing critical health needs in the area, this once food pantry expanded into so much more, serving 2,925 people in the first four months of 2017.

Emergency Gospel Action

"In urgent cases, in the absence of the Pastor, any Christian may administer Holy Baptism." Have you ever read this line printed on the last page of The Lutheran Hymnal? This final page indicates Christ's Church is His people. He sends us. However, this was in cases of emergency. Are we experiencing an emergency in our context and culture today?
