

Dr. Gerald Brunworth served our church for over 45 years as a teacher/school administrator in the secondary schools and universities of our church. He holds bachelor's (Concordia-Chicago), master's (New York University) and doctoral (University of Nebraska-Lincoln) degrees. With his now sainted wife Barbara, he served couples in facilitating Marriage Enrichment experiences. He served as a member of the original Synodical Genesis Team to assist in the organization of new schools, the Texas District Board of Directors, the Texas District School Accreditation Commission and the Texas District Commission on Professional Workers Growth and Support. He lives in Dallas.
