

Christiane Hobbs is a Director of Christian Education (DCE). She grew up in a farming community in Central Texas and began her college education at Concordia Austin. She earned her bachelor's degree and DCE Certification at Concordia University St. Paul. Christiane has served churches in urban and suburban settings in educational ministry with people of all ages. She has mentored and coached lay employees, volunteers and a DCE Intern. Christiane and her husband Monty and their two children live in Mansfield, Texas. She is excited about this opportunity to minister to individuals in ministry and their families.