

John Busacker is a writer, speaker and entrepreneur. He is the Founder of Life-Worth, a personal leadership development and life planning consulting firm.

He has delivered keynotes and worked with leaders on six continents engaging such issues as personal engagement, authentic leadership, and holistic generosity.

John is the author of four books: do less, be more: The Life-Changing Power of Focus, Dare to Answer: 8 Questions That Awaken Your Faith and Inspiring Generosity: Stories of Faith and Grace in Art.

His newest book, Gasping for Breath: Inviting God's Spirit Into Your Overwhelmed Life was released February 1st into a world struggling to recover from Covid-19.

John's passion for leadership extends globally, supporting the development needs of leaders with a variety of nonprofits and faith-based organizations in the U.S. and sub-Saharan Africa.

He and his wife Carol live outside Minneapolis, Minnesota, and have two married children and three exuberant grandchildren.