

Dr. Gary Schaper started out as pastor of a mission congregation for 5 years. His second call was to be the senior pastor of a large congregation with a school for 22 years. After receiving a doctorate in counseling Gary was called to be the Director of Personality and Leadership to students at Concordia Seminary, St. Louis, for 16 years. In his semiretirement Gary spent five years developing a community care outreach program at Pathfinder in Ellisville, MO.

Gary is a Certified Christian Leadership Coach. Gary and his wife, Shirley, a deaconess and former licensed counselor, live in Frisco, TX.

They came to Texas as soon as they could.....
