STRENGTHEN CONGREGATIONS to reach the lost,
disciple the saved,
and care for people - locally and globally.*

Texas District Mission Prayer Update

October 10, 2022

Dear Texas Mission Prayer Partners,

During Hispanic Heritage Month, we give special thanks and prayers for Hispanic workers and ministries in Texas. Please praise God for his unifying grace that breaks linguistic and cultural barriers and binds us all in Christ. Pray for the effectiveness of the workers and ministries highlighted below.

I give thanks to God for your faithfulness in prayer. May He pour out His Presence and fill your times of prayer and praise!

Rev. Nelson & Mrs. Kenny Hernandez
Iglesia Cristiana Emanuel, Houston

Estamos orando que una nueva iglesia que estamos plantando en el área de Plumgrove Texas, deseando unirnos a la misión con nuestro Señor Jesucristo.

We are praying that a new church that we are planting in the Plumgrove Texas area, wishing to join the mission with our Lord Jesus Christ.

Estamos trabajando con la comunidad, esperando que empezar una nueva iglesia que tendrá por nombre Iglesia Cristiana Cristo mi Salvador. We are working with the community, hoping to start a new church that will be called Iglesia Cristiana Cristo mi Salvador.

Rev. Juan Zamora

T2C2 Mission Network, DFW

- Pray for the new outreach ministry that has started this fall at Grace in Arlington, opening an opportunity to serve our community and to develop Hispanic ministry.
- Pray for the ESL class at St. John's, in its second year, and their Spanish Bible Study to serve the spiritual needs of the Hispanic people in Mansfield.
- Pray for our leaders working on these different sites: Deaconess Alma Zamora, Omar Sarmiento, Ibama Sarmiento, Thomas Larsen, and Rosy Portillo.
