

Dayana Fernandez is a servant of the Lord who loves to share the Good News of Jesus Christ.

Born in the city of Quilmes, Buenos Aires, Argentina, she was born into a Pastoral Christian home. She accompanied and supported her parents, from a very young age, in the work of the Lord, developing herself as a Worship Leader and Sunday School teacher.

At the age of 18, he moved to the city of Buenos Aires to attend a Biblical Theological Seminary. After a year and for reasons of force major, she returned to her local church as a missionary.

In 1999, he received an invitation to the neighboring nation, Chile, to lead a four-day Evangelistic Event. There, she meets Reverend Rodrigo Fernandez, with whom she has been married for 24 years, and they have three daughters, Sofía, Estefania, and Romina.

Both Reverend Rodrigo and Dayana served in Chile as Youth Leaders, not only at the local level but also at the district and national level. They were serving with joy and love, both the local Church and the community.

In 2004, they received the call to Houston, Texas, leaving everything: family, home, work, friends, but obeying the Lord.

During the years 2004-2006, they served a local church in south Houston, performing duties as Associate Pastor, Leadership Development, and Worship Ministry.

In 2006, they met Reverend Lincon Guerra, who introduced us to Reverend Mark Junkans, thus meeting Linc Houston, where we have worked for 16 years planting Manantiales de Vida, Northwest Houston Tx.

Dayana has the title of Associate of Theology from the Christian University For The Nations, Inc., acquired on May 9, 2008, in the city of Dallas, TX.

After many years of caring, specifically the role of mother and wife, Dayana will begin her studies at the Center for Hispanic Studies at Concordia Seminary to finally be a qualified deaconess since, in function, she has held this position for many years.

Dayana has contributed as a missionary in “Living Water” and “Ideame”, in El Salvador and Honduras to share the gospel with those people who do not know Jesus.

Currently, in the local church, Manantiales de Vida, she serves as Director of the worship ministry and in administrative functions.

Dayana is the Lead Evangelist Trainer for Area D of the Texas District in Spanish. Dayana is passionate about the mission of Jesus. Their motto is: “If we don't preach, the stones will.”
