Connecting Church Planting with Our Seminaries—Again! In Luke 10:2, Jesus asks us to pray for workers for the harvest field. One of the most significant areas of need is for church planters. When this article was written, the Houston area had three “shovel ready” church plants among Texas District congregations needing a planter. One of the places we hope to find those workers is at our two wonderful seminaries in St. Louis and Ft. Wayne...[\[Read More\]](#)

Exponential. More than seventy LCMS leaders across Texas recently traveled to Tennessee to participate in Learning Communities hosted by the Exponential organization. Over a day and a half, participants were encouraged by stories of ordinary Christians who are actively reproducing. We were invited into a culture in which it is considered ‘normal’ for disciples to make disciples who make disciples. Our facilitators helped us think through our current contexts and assisted us in making plans for further Kingdom multiplication...[\[Read More\]](#)

Support the Mission—Texas Partners in Mission

Every dollar given to Texas Partners in Mission goes to Texas District mission work and missionaries. For more information visit txlcms.org/tpim/.

Texas Partners in Mission and Texas Church Extension Fund are pairing up to increase the financial resources available for planting new congregations. Both contributed dollars and invested dollars are needed to meet the challenge of planting new ministries. The Texas Two-Step Program seeks to multiply your gifts and your investments to accomplish the important work of bringing the Gospel to more and more people.
