

Becky Jungklaus is a highly qualified in American Sign Language, Deaf Education EC-12, and TASC (Texas Assessment of Sign Communication). Becky is a retired ASL high school teacher. She is fluent in English, ASL (American Sign Language), Exacted Sign English, Pidgin Signed English, and Total Communication. I have experience with my American Sign Language (ASL) teaching for 12 years.

Becky graduated from EIIT, Ethnic Immigrant Institute of Theology, Concordia Seminary in 2023. . Becky looks forward to outreaching deaf people all over in USA. As you may know or may not know that only 98% of Deaf people do not know Jesus.

Becky has been married to Mark Jungklaus for 46 years and has 4 wonderful sons and 9 grandkids.

Becky has a background in education and experience that she is now using more fully for the Kingdom:

- Deaf Deaconess in Southeast Area of the Texas District
- ASL Jesus Signs-Teaching Deaf Family Grow: Southeast Texas-Memorial Lutheran Church in Katy, TX
- Deaf ASL High School and Middle School Teacher for 12 years
- Leading LifeBridge Community Church (LCMS) Sunday School “Belong.” It is a special ministry for teens and young adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities and people with hard of hearing and deaf.
- Certified Texas Content: American Sign Language, Deaf Education, Texas Assessment of Sign Communication (TASC), and Pedagogy Professionals Responsibilities (PPR)
- Deaf Outreach Deaconess training in U.S. and Internationally
- Support and develop Deaf Outreach Ministry resources.
- Teaching and mentoring Youth and Adults in Deaf Outreach ministry.
- Developing Deaf Events that leads Deaf people to learn about Jesus.
- Teaching Concordia University Chicago ASL on Zoom.