

MISSION PRAYER

February 24, 2025

Continue steadfastly in prayer, being watchful in it with thanksgiving.
Colossians 4:2

Dear Texas Mission Partners,

Mission Prayer calls you to prayer. Jesus tells us to ask the Lord of the harvest to send workers into the harvest. In this, we see the heart of God, the mission of Jesus, and the initial action of disciples in the building of the Kingdom, namely prayer. This is counter to the cultural context that insists we take action and stop thinking. Will you assist in building the Kingdom? Sit down and make prayer for the mission a priority in your life of faith.

“Equipped and Sent”

Philip was a deacon and then called an evangelist. It is believed that he spent most of his life in Caesarea Maritima, witnessing to the community and sharing the good news of Jesus. The Texas District is raising up evangelists by equipping and sending them into their own Caesarea’s of the mission field. An evangelist is a trained follower of Jesus Christ who shares the Gospel in everyday places, building relationships and creating spaces where people can encounter Jesus. Maybe you would be interested and feel called to be one too?

For the last few months, members of ACTS Church Lakeway and Leander and members from Redeemer and Hope in Austin were interested and felt called to be equipped and sent as evangelists. They met to participate in the Evangelism Training Program over a few months working on eight specific evangelistic competencies. When they came together as a cohort, each Christ follower shared their experiences of receiving faith in baptism and their hopes on how they will lean into the mission of God to share His Gospel message of good news where they live, work, and play...
