Texas District Board of Directors

The Texas District Board of Directors met online on July 28. Board member Chris Rodgers welcomed the board and opened the meeting with a devotion.

Sally Krueger, Texas District LWML president, gave an update on the Texas District LWML Convention, held June 11-13 in Austin, with 462 people in attendance.

The board reflected on the recent LCMS national convention held in Phoenix. Attendees shared positive comments and encouragement, noting that the convention was well run and sharing highlights in support of the Texas District's focus on mission outreach throughout the district.

Rev. Keith Reich was elected to fill the remainder of Rev. Stephen DeMik's term on the Board of Mission Administration.

Treasurer Becca Jones presented the treasurer's report, followed by an update on the Texas District Church Extension Fund (CEF). The board approved the minutes from the July CEF board meeting and appointed Kelly Biar as a new CEF board member.

District staff then delivered their reports, including updates from Dr. Bill Hinz on school ministry, Lisa Candido on external relations, and Larry Rietz on district strategy.

Chris Rodgers concluded the meeting with prayer, and President Braunersreuther adjourned the meeting at approximately 11 a.m.
