

Rev. Dr. Mark Hannemann serves as President, Director of Advancement, and counselor for GracePoint Institute for Relational Health, a non-profit counseling ministry he and his son, Justin, founded in Omaha in 2012. GracePoint's counselors serve out of offices in Lincoln, Omaha, and Columbus, NE. The ministry specializes in assessments, consultation, and counseling for church workers across the country. Since 2022, Hannemann has also served as Executive Director of Good Friend Ministries, which provides retreats, spiritual direction, counseling, consultation, and coaching for pastors of the Michigan District of the LCMS and their wives. The retreat facility is in Traverse City, MI. Since the summer of 2025, he has served as Interim Pastor at Zion Lutheran Church, Hampton, NE. He and his wife, Sandy, reside in rural Seward County, NE. They have four children and 16 grandchildren.
