MISSION PRAYER

October 26, 2026

Continue steadfastly in prayer, being watchful in it with thanksgiving.
Colossians 4:2

Dear Texas Mission Partners,

The greatest missional contribution you can make is to pray. Jesus tells us to ask the Lord of the harvest to send workers into the field. In this, we see the heart of God, the mission of Jesus, and the initial action of disciples in building the Kingdom: prayer. In a culture that insists we constantly keep moving and doing, it is all the more important to be still and ask God to take action. Will you answer His invitation to meet with you? Join us and prioritize prayer for the Kingdom.

Just Where God Wants You

As this article is being written, the past few days in my life were spent with many of the fine pastors of the Texas District at our annual fall pastors conference. The theme of this year's conference was ministerial health—of vital importance for all pastors. Pastors are subject to the frailties that beset all Christians and the temptations that result. When the pressure becomes too much, the feelings of inadequacy surface, along with all the negative behaviors that come with that.

Especially significant among those feelings of inadequacy is the lack of giftedness in a particular area that the pastor perceives he has. In my closing remarks, I had the opportunity to remind the brothers that God did not call a pastor with another set of gifts to the place that they are called. He called them—with all their gifts and all their weaknesses.

And that's where this message turns to you. You are in exactly the place that God wants you, too. God's Word says so: "From one man he [God] made every nation of men, that they should inhabit the whole earth; and he determined the times set for them and the exact places where they should live. God did this so that men would seek him and perhaps reach out for him and find him, though he is not far from each one of us." (Acts 17:26-27 NIV84, emphasis mine)...
